Announcements.

CONGRESS.

The friends of Rowland C. Burns beg to announce that he is a candidate for Congress in this district in 1902, subject to the action of the Republican party. He believes that a mountain man is as good as any one.

X

The way they voted in Lawrence County Tuesday.

A clean sweep.

Tammany lost in New York.

Ohio went largely Republican, as usual.

It was the greatest victory Lawrence county Democrats have won for many years.

Prichard won for State Senator, thanks to the handsome vote given him in Elliott and Lawrence.

Greenup, Ky., Nov. 6.—Greenup county elected the entire Republican ticket. O. P. Temple, candidate for Senator, carried the county by 475.

The Central City Chronicle is the name of a neat new paper that has just made its appearance in Cabell county, W. Va. We welcome it to our exchange list.

Three magistrates and constables constitute the Republican victory in Lawrence county last Tuesday, and one of the latter threatened to resign. Billie Riffe will feel lonesome after the first of January.

Salersville, Ky., Nov. 6.—Eight of the nine precincts of this county give Adams 200 majority. The precinct not heard from gave a Democratic majority in 1900 of 149. Seven out of the nine precincts gave Coffee, for Senator, 261 majority. The two precincts not heard from gave a Democratic majority in 1900 of 100. Democrats elect the Superintendent of Schools. The Democratic gain in the county is over 200.

Below we give the latest news we have been able to get from Johnson county, which is taken from a letter received from Paintsville yesterday:

In the election just passed the Republicans elected their full ticket except the County Court Clerk. James Price, Democrat, was elected Clerk of the County Court by a majority of 31 votes.

J. D. Bond, democrat, was defeated by Geo. M. Johnson by only 91 votes. The 800 Republican majority is growing beautifully less. M. F. Howes was elected Police Judge.

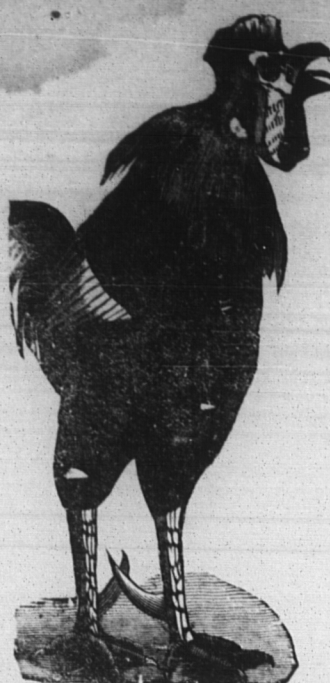

Probably the hottest County election in this entire section of Kentucky was that of Pike county. James Hatcher, Will Smith, Land Lawson, Jeff Williamson, John Auxler, Will Coleman and Ferrell Polly, all men of considerable means, were candidates, and the money flowed as it never did before in that county. Several thousand dollars were spent. Excitement ran high. The result is not yet known. On account of the large area of the county and the inaccessibility of some of the precincts, the returns are slow getting in.

Democrats Made a Clean Sweep in Lawrence County.

Caught Their Brethren of the Opposite Faith and "Smote Them Hip and Thigh."

PRICHARD WINS FOR STATE SENATOR

It has been nearly or quite a score of years since the Democrats of Lawrence county have won such a victory as that of last Tuesday. Every county officer on the ticket, including five of the eight magistrates and constables, are elected. The majorities as figured unofficially are as follows:
State Senate, Prichard, 94
Legislature, Byrne, 153
County Judge, Vinson, 107
Attorney, Fugitt, 16
Coroner, Skeens, 153
Clerk, Cordle, 200
Supt. Schools, Holbrook, 65
Assessor, Peters, 90
Jailer, Hays, 228
Surveyor, Highbarger, 94
Coroner, Marcum, 71
Magistrate, Louisa, Diamond, 88
Constable, Josh Diamond, 88
Vinson carried the two Louisa precincts by 158 majority, the largest known here since the secret ballot system was adopted.
Elliott county gave Prichard for Senate 815 majority, and Lawrence gave him 94. Greenup gave his opponent, Temple, 466, and Boyd county 326. This elects Prichard by a close, but comfortable majority.

Castner, Republican, is elected to the Legislature from this district by about 300.
The Kentucky Legislature is largely Democratic. It is estimated that there will be a two-thirds majority on joint ballot.

Louisville and Jefferson county elected a full Democratic ticket.

The Tammany ticket was defeated in New York by a large majority.

In Boyd county the Republicans captured all the offices except County Clerk. For this office Ellis Lawrence was re-elected by 111 majority. The entire Democratic ticket was elected in Catlettsburg.

In Martin county, A. Williamson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was defeated by only 8 votes. The Republican candidate for County Judge was elected by only 28.

PROCRASTINATION.

A man of great renown has wisely said, "That which is good to be done cannot be done too soon, for if it is neglected to be done early it will frequently happen to not be done at all."

That's truer of nothing else than of Life Insurance. It's the everlasting putting it off of uninsured people that brings half of the misery we perceive about us.

You later" has made more helpless widows and hopeless orphans than all the wars and famines that have devastated the earth.

Where do you stand reader? Are you a man of today—the day you are sure of; or do you belong to the tomorrow crowd—the tomorrow that may never come.

If you are on the wrong side of the question put yourself right before sundown today by applying to the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, for a policy guaranteed by over three hundred and twenty-five millions of dollars in assets.

UNSETTLED.

Can you tell me what sort of weather we may expect next month? wrote a subscriber to the editor of a paper; and the editor replied as follows:

"It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription." The enquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the word, "unsettled". He sent in the required amount next day—

CALL FOR MEETING.

Big Sandy River Association to Meet in Catlettsburg.

It is deemed expedient to adopt this method of inviting the attention of the members of the Big Sandy River Improvement Association, the various auxiliary branches thereof and all persons interested in the work and purposes of the Association to the Third Annual Meeting of the Association which under the Constitution, convenes in the Morse Opera house at Catlettsburg, Kentucky, at noon Monday, November 18th, 1901. In addition to the discharge of important administrative work and the election of officers for the ensuing year, the work of the Association as a body for the year thence ensuing is agreed upon and outlined in these annual meetings and it is of supreme importance that each of the county auxiliaries comprising the Association and each county in the valley represented therein by full delegations of active, earnest workers for, and believers in the improvement of the Big Sandy and the development of our resources. To this end each auxiliary and county is urged to select, at an early date, as delegates to this meeting, five men who will attend and will gladly and earnestly do what they are sent to do. Let us get together. The work and enthusiasm of the past meetings was very gratifying; but the attendance in point of numbers, was not satisfactory. Let us make this meeting a record breaker. We hope to have with us Senators and Congressmen from West Virginia and Kentucky who are doing yeoman service for our river, and we owe it to them and ourselves to make this meeting exhibit in us a strong enthusiasm, and a definite, determined purpose. But for one of the unforeseen incidents of legislative debate last session of Congress the improvement of our river would today be a half million dollars nearer completion. Let us in unison keep up the fight and do our dead level best the coming year to take a long stride toward the goal at which we aim—a navigable river from the head of both tributaries to Catlettsburg. Let the watchword throughout the valley be: "Catlettsburg, November 18th." By order of the Executive Committee. Jay H. Northup, Pres. B. Randolph Bias, Secretary.

No Bounties for Soldiers.

Treasury Department, Washington, October 8. A special dispatch was published in several of the leading daily papers on or about September 29, 1901, in regard to an alleged discovery of some old laws by a Brooklyn lawyer, granting $84 State and $192 Federal bounties to soldiers for services in the recent Spanish-American War, and stating that it would cost the State about $2,000,000. It was also alleged that some thousands of cases were now before Attorney General Knox at Washington for his decision, and that the matter is expected to be settled within the next ten days.

This dispatch is very vague, and so far as the United States is concerned is incorrect and misleading. No such cases are before the Attorney General of the United States for his action or decision.

Furthermore, no law has ever been passed by Congress, granting any bounties whatever to any soldiers for service in the late Spanish-American War of 1898 and 1899. Certain laws were passed giving extra pay to such soldiers in certain cases in lieu of a furlough or a leave of absence. But in nearly all such cases the soldiers who were entitled to such extra pay have already been paid it.

In regard to bounty due to soldiers from the United States for service in the Civil War of 1861-1865, no recent bounty laws have been passed. The last general bounty law enacted by the United States was on April 22, 1872, and nearly all soldiers entitled to bounty under that act, and also under previous acts passed giving to soldiers for service in the Civil War, have already been paid all the bounty due them.

It is only necessary to say in conclusion, that there is no foundation whatever for any such statements as set forth in said dispatch so far as the United States is concerned, and it is hoped that those who are interested in this matter will not be induced to make useless inquiries or to file worthless claims on account of such misrepresentations. F. E. RITMAN, Auditor.

Seymour Webb, M. D., N. Y., writes: "I had been troubled with my kidneys for 25 years and had tried several physicians but received no relief until I bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles I was absolutely cured. I earnestly recommend Foley's Kidney Cure." Take only Foley's. A. H. Gager

Just Across the River In West Virginia.

Pierce Young, son of George Young, a wealthy citizen of near Logan, W. Va., was run over by a heavy wagon, Saturday, and received injuries that may result in his death. He was riding on the wagon, and was said to be slightly intoxicated, when he fell beneath the wheels and his abdomen was crushed. He was immediately removed to his home where he lies in a precarious condition.

Capitalists are now turning their attention to the coal and timber fields on East Lynn in Wayne county. Thousands of acres of unbroken forests abound in that region and in the past few days Pennsylvanians have been in the region looking at the territory. These lands are about 30 miles south of here, near the Norfolk & Western railway and on the waters of the left hand fork of Twelve Pole.—Catlettsburg Press.

The surviving sons and daughters of Benjamin Garrett have been having an informal reunion at the home of Rev J. D. Garrett, four miles below Wayne. Of original family of 14, but four are living, two sons and two daughters. Those living are Morris Garrett, now residing in Illinois, Rev. J. D. Garrett, Mrs. McClure, of Louisa, Ky., and Mrs. Cynthia Booth, of Garrett creek. Mrs. McClure is the widow of the late Strother McClure, and Mrs. Booth is the widow of the late Jimerson Booth.—Wayne News.

One of the grandest weddings of the season took place at the home of the bride's parents at Thacker on last Thursday at 8 p. m., when Miss Minnie Johnson was united in matrimony to Mr. Guy White, one of Mingo's leading citizens. More than a hundred guests, including many of Williamson's elite were present. A grand supper was spread at 8 p. m., and all were filled with good things too numerous to mention. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Peter Clay, of Williamson. The presents were many and valuable.—Williamson West Virginian.

MODERN SURGERY PASSED.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises, and all other wounds are also cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. A. M. Hughes.

MURDER.

Lafe Hicks Shot and Killed by Noah Kelley.

What seems to be a very bad murder occurred in the Cherokee neighborhood in this county last Friday evening.

The facts as gathered at the Coroner's inquest are in substance as follows:

There had been ill feeling between the Kelley and Hicks families for a long time. The parents of the two principals were Frank Kelley and James Hicks. A cow belonging to the latter sustained a broken leg recently and suspicion rested upon Noah Kelley. Friday evening as James Hicks and son Lafe were passing Kelley's home, Noah came out and cursed the old man for having accused him of breaking the cow's leg. Hicks said he believed Noah had broken the cow's leg. Noah then drew a revolver, it is said, and snapped it twice at the old man's breast, but the weapon failed to fire. The son picked up something to throw at Kelley, and the latter turned his pistol upon him and snapped it around, but none of the charges exploded. He then went to the house and got a Winchester rifle. The father and son started on their way, and as soon as Kelley perceived the gun he began firing at them. They kept going, and after he had fired several shots, one ball struck Lafe in the back just under the shoulder and came out through the left breast. He walked a few steps and fell dead.

Kelley mounted a horse and rode away at full speed. He was last seen across in Boyd or Carter county.

Hicks was 25 years old and leaves a wife and three children. Kelley is 22 and unmarried. They were first cousins. Lafe's mother is a sister of Noah's father.

A Delightful Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Burns, always ideal hosts, fully sustained their enviable reputation as entertainers last Thursday night. It was Halloween, and to celebrate the occasion a large number of young people were bidden to assemble at the Burns' beautiful home. The party was given in honor of the hosts' sister, Miss Lillian McHenry and her friend Miss Vessie McClure, of Santa Fe, a pretty girl and former Louisan who has been the recipient of much attention here and elsewhere during her visit East. It being the night of All Saints' Day the sports of the evening were planned accordingly. As we say in France, was a mock marriage. The principals in the wedding were chosen in a very unique manner. Every gentleman present made a proposal of marriage to every lady, using exactly the same language in each proposal. Each young lady accepted the offer, using the same language to each proposer. When each had been accepted the ladies held an election to decide who of the young bachelors had made the nearest offer of marriage, and it was agreed that Mr. Charles Hunter, of Hancock county, Va., and a member of the C. & O.'s corps of engineers, had made the most pleasing proposition. The young men also held an election, and Miss Vessie McClure won without a dissenting voice. And these two, fair and brave to look upon, were candidates for the mock wedding. It was very neatly carried out. The principals had the proper number of attendants, and Mr. John Woods, with a draped sheet for a surplice, and using a big curtain ring for a wedding ring, "united" the twain in due form.

Then refreshments were served, and the delicious cream and cake was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. The coin in the wedding cake was captured by Miss Stella Conley, Miss Belle Vaughan drew the darning needle, and Miss Lillian McHenry found the ring. Charades, music and the "light fantastic" made the pleasant hours pass all too swiftly, making Halloween 1901 something long to be remembered by a numerous and delighted company.

Seventeen men left here Wednesday for Louisiana, to work for a large lumber company.

The railroad finds it impossible to properly take care of all the business on this division with present facilities, and it is reported that we are soon to have two through passenger and two freight trains daily.

Incendiary Fire.

Thursday morning Wm. Holt was awakened by the smell of smoke, and upon investigating found that his wash-house, which is just back of his residence, was burning. The fire was extinguished without much damage being done. A flower pit near the wash-house and all the flowers were destroyed. Mr. Holt says there is no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary as there had been no fire near the building.

A Great Sermon.

Dr. Boland, pastor of the M. E. Church South, read for a text last Sunday night James 1st, 12, 13, 14, 15, and Genesis 3d, 6, and then announced for his theme "The Philosophy of Temptation." After calling attention to the fact that the word "tempt," as used in the Bible, had two significations: First, to prove or test one's character; as God tried Abraham. Second, a solicitation to evil, as James uses it in the phrase "Every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own desire and enticed," the doctor proceeded to discuss in his own masterly way Temptation as a solicitation to evil, using the temptation in the Garden to illustrate St. James' definition.

I. As the evil is the great umpire of the mind every solicitation to evil must come to this tribunal before it can be a temptation. Now, we can only reach the will through perception, emotions and desires. For instance, a man perceives a forbidden object which is pleasing to his natural sensibilities. This stirs his emotions and kindles his desires, and the desires press against the will for its concurrence; then, and not till then, does the solicitation become a temptation. The mental process in temptation, therefore, is from perception to emotions, from emotions to desires and from desires to the will. Let us, said the preacher, compare this analysis with the word of God.

"And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food and it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit and did eat." Here we have the whole process from perception to volition, and it agrees with our analysis in every particular. St. James defines the exact point where temptation ends and sin begins: "Every man is drawn away of his own desire and enticed"; so far it is a temptation; "then when desire hath conceived—gained the consent of the will—"it bringeth forth sin." The solicitation must be addressed to the will or it is no temptation, and the will is reached through perception, emotions and desires. It follows, then, that the stirrings of the emotions and the kindling of the desires, apart from the concurrence of the will have no more moral quality than the pulsations of the heart. One is the natural process for circulating the blood; the other is the natural process of a temptation. And yet a class of good men so confound the endings of desire with the acts of the will that every time they are severely tempted they imagine that they have sinned. Hence they are seeking a state of grace in which their emotions and desires will never be stirred by a forbidden object; but they might as well seek a state of animal life in which the heart will cease to throb and the machinery of life continue to move. No desire can be evil without the sympathy and concurrence of the will. Up to the point when a man is "drawn away of his own desire and enticed" the solicitation is a temptation, but a temptation resisted is neither an evil nor a sin. To say that the emotions and desires may be dead to all evil but alive to all good will not remove the difficulty, for they being natural and not moral faculties they make no moral distinction—they are simply pleased at whatever is pleasing and desire whatever is desirable to the physical man, while the moral faculties must detect the evil and will reject the wrong. We can not conceive how any being can sin except a moral agent, and we can not see how a moral agent can sin aside from volition.

II. There is another class of emotions to the mind—the moral emotions; and these are followed by feelings of moral obligation; so that the will, in its final decision, takes notice of the desires on the one hand and of the interdictions of the obligatory feelings on the other, and in every temptation these two classes of mutual states stand before the will in direct opposition to each other. Thus in the craving of natural desire and the interdictions of moral obligations we have the basis of an internal conflict destined to be renewed in every temptation. These two opposite principles belong to our two-fold nature as it came from the hand of the Creator, and to try to escape from it is to try to put ourselves beyond the sphere of temptation and close up our state of probation.

We learn, first: that not a few of the mental states, which have been called "sin in believers," or, "the remains of the carnal mind," are nothing more than the consciousness of this internal conflict which always accompanies a severe temptation, but is more keenly felt in the early part of the Christian life on account of the force of habits. The idea that religion is to so destroy our natural sensibilities that they are no longer "enticed by evil" has been the source of untold agony to those who have tried to reach such a state. Whatever grace does for us is done according to the laws of the mind, and not by setting these laws aside. The mind is so constituted that without the natural sensibilities no man could be tempted; but with these we can see how even the incarnate Son of God "was tempted in all points like as we are," and how he could "suffer being tempted." The remedy in every temptation is not found in the conclusion that sin is unavoidable, nor in the idea that regeneration leaves a "residue of sin in us," but the remedy is found in the will rejecting the solicitation to evil.

We learn secondly that the mind God gave man in the creation is the same mind that he carries with him forever; that the "carnal mind" is nothing more than this same mind under the control of our fleshly nature—the course of carnal thinking; and that all that is necessary to destroy the mental state called the "carnal mind" is to "renew us in the divine image and take this same mind from under the dominion of our fleshly nature, and put it back under the control of the Holy Spirit and our renewed spiritual nature, so that we will 'not walk after the flesh but after the spirit'." To say that the "carnal mind survives the work of regeneration" is to say that a regenerated man is not reconciled to God, "because the carnal mind is enmity against God"; hence regeneration either destroys the carnal mind or else it fails to reconcile us to God. According to St. Paul the carnal mind is the "law of sin and death" that reigns in the unregenerate, and from which, Paul affirms, the "law of the Spirit makes us free"; and "if the Son make you free you shall be free indeed"; but "if any man have not this spirit of Christ he is none of His".

This in the main was Dr. Boland's argument—clear, analytical, logical, convincing. He clothed his argument with eloquent rhetoric, and delivered it with the warmth and feeling so characteristic of the man. He was given the closest attention, and all present must have felt more than ever pleased with the good Doctor's return to Louisa.

TEACHERS' MONEY

Will Not be Here In Time for Payment Saturday.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6.

To County Superintendents:—The State Treasurer informs me that he will be unable to pay the school fund due the teachers on Nov. 9th. This results from the fact that the State Board of Equalization was very late in completing its work this year, thereby causing the sheriffs to be delayed in securing their tax books, and consequently behind in the collection of taxes.

The Treasurer hopes to be able to pay another 20 per cent. within ten days or two weeks.

Very respectfully,
H. V. McCHESNEY,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

Louisa Graded School.

The monthly report to the Board of Education for the month ending Nov. 1 shows the following totals: On roll Oct. 7, 207; admitted during month 19; left 13; on roll Nov. 1, 213; average attendance 175; cases of tardiness 396; average daily tardiness 10; percentage of attendance 81. Four rooms report 13 cases of corporal punishment. The absence was mainly noticeable among the very small pupils, the primary department showing a percentage of attendance of only 64.

The following is the honor roll for the month:

First department—Ella Preston, Janie O'Brien, Bessie Snyder, Heloise Thomas, Harry Sammons, Archie McClure, Leslie Hill.

Second department—Martha Vaughan, Mattie McKee, Therza DeRossett, Minnie Calnes, Cora Meek, Milton Wroten, Willie Jenkins, Charlie Ferguson.

Third department—Rebecca Lackey, Ethel Spencer, Clara Bromley, Sarah F. Jenkins, Addie B. Jones, Ellsworth Meloy, Braddy Chaffin, George Waldeck, Earl Billups.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Officers of election in Pine Grove precinct, Rowan county, disagreed over the count of ballots and engaged in a shooting affray for about 15 seconds. Parties from the outside forced the door open after the fusillade and found three dead and two wounded. The killed are John Shumate and two of the Higgs.

Greenup, Ky., Nov. 3.—Philip Riley, the 12-year-old son of a prosperous farmer of Frost, died today from the effects of a wound he received on Halloween night. He was accidentally shot in the leg by a comrade, and it was found necessary to amputate the limb. The boy was so weakened from loss of blood, however, that he only survived the operation a few hours.

Catlettsburg Daily Press—At 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon Fred Ferguson, a painter engaged in painting the C. & O. bridge over Big Sandy, was struck by the West-bound shuttle train, and fell to the river bed below, a distance of 75 feet and was almost instantly killed.

Dr. M. L. Smiley was hastily called, but the injured man lived only a few seconds after his arrival.

The man came from Kenosha this morning and gave his name as Fred Ferguson and his residence on Twelve Pole creek.

Nothing is known of his family as this was his first day's work in connection with the large force of men engaged in painting the bridge.

Miss Janie Graham Vinson, of Catlettsburg, and Mr. Warren Allen, county attorney of Mercer county, Ky., will be united in marriage on Nov. 27.

The bride-to-be is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Vinson, while the groom is one of Mercer county's most prominent politicians and one of the most popular men of that section.

The marriage will occur at Hollywood, the beautiful suburban home of the Vinsons, at Catlettsburg, only relatives and immediate friends being present. After the wedding the happy couple will leave for a honeymoon trip, after which they will return to Hardinsburg, their future home.

SHAKE

Is not a popular occupation. Most women shrink from the sight of a snake and would faint at the sight of one. But these same women run greater risks than the snake charmer. How many women allow disease to fasten on them and slowly to crush out their strength.

Womanly diseases should never be allowed to undermine the health. Female weakness, bearing-down pains, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, nervousness, and other womanly ailments, curable by medicine, are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I deem it my duty to express my deep, heartfelt gratitude to you for having been the means under Providence of restoring me to health," writes Mrs. Oscar Brown, of Oxford, Graville, Co., N. C. "For two years I suffered with female weakness, headache, nervousness, and other ailments of the system, and after using four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, three of his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one box of 'Pain-Expeller' and one box of 'Antiseptic and Healing Suppositories,' I am cured."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps the expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Talk About Roads.

Cat Ridge, Ky. It is a fact notwithstanding the great knowledge and wisdom of our road laws, that a 30 foot right of way is not sufficient to construct thereon a graded road over a hilly country like ours. Suppose then you should have a 9 foot fill to make with a 16 foot roadway. One-and-one-half to one is the conventional rule for ditches, so to make a nine foot fill and a 16 foot roadway you would have to have a right of way 43 feet. A 5 foot fill is all you can make on a 30 foot right of way, and then you will have used a foot of your neighbor's ground. This is not the only point where our law writers have shown their ignorance on road construction. The whole system should be revised and made practical and comprehensive. Law makers, as a rule, are very dumb sort of creatures, and should not be trusted with matters so important.

The fact that you cannot enter an orchard with a public highway without bowing to the will of its owner, is most ludicrous, and in many instances, has defrauded the county out of a good location. I maintain that any property save a grave yard should be taken for public use without compensation to its owner, however. Locate your roads where they should go, and if you damaged any one, the damage is for the public good, and the county should pay for it. Until this dodging system is done away with we are not going to have properly located county roads.

It is to be hoped that the incoming county court will make a study of these weaknesses, and seek to have important amendments. Another thing guard well against, and that is in allowing politics to creep into your public road system. I have a friend in a neighboring county where they work their roads by taxation only, and spend large sums every year on road improvements, who is in close touch with the county officials. He says the County Judge of that county, who became so by accident, removed at one blow all the road workers or overseers, and appointed in their stead men wholly incompetent, inexperienced and worse than worthless, as road builders, who have squandered hundreds and hundreds of dollars of the people's money all to gain political ends.

The serpent that this trusted official warmed in his own bosom to sting his enemy has recoiled and the chances now are that he will be defeated in the house of his friends.

A man should be employed to expend public funds on account of his qualifications and not because he belongs to a certain political party. Shame on such treachery and the man that so engages in it should be beaten into oblivion.

Watch Specials.

We have picked up a few fine watches at very low prices, and will offer them proportionately cheap.

20-year gold-filled 16 size case, fitted with 17-jeweled, nickel, fully adjusted movement, for $19.50. This is less than the regular wholesale price.

20-year 18-size gold-filled hunting case, fitted with 17-jeweled, adjusted, nickel movement, for $21.50. The regular wholesale price is considerably above this. If you want a good watch, our advice is to take advantage of these bargains. They are among the best we have ever had. The movements are of the grade required by railroad employees.

17-jeweled, adjusted movement in silver-line case, guaranteed accurate time-keeper, $12. We formerly paid 35 per cent. more for this kind of movement at wholesale than we are now selling them at. These are a few picked up from an assignee stock.

INDIANA

There are no hills in this country, consequently the settlers had to dig ditches before they could do any good farming and since they have got ditches that will average about six feet deep, they can raise good crops of any thing they wish to sow or plant. All the land that has not been cleared up for farming has a very heavy growth of all kinds of timber on it and what looks very singular to me is the roots of these trees start out above the ground and extend several feet before they get under. When this land was all covered over with timber and in many places ponds of water it was sold in many instances for eight dollars an acre and the same land is now worth eighty dollars an acre. Nobody expects to buy or sell land here for less than eighty dollars. There is a creek here about the size of Blaine they call Cleveo and there is a small town they call Cleveo but I have not heard of any towns or creeks called Demosthenes. They think the conductors on the train couldn't say Demosthenes.

The weather was not favorable this season for their crops of any kind, but apples seem to be tolerably plentiful. When they build new houses here now they put on a good deal of style in the way of "curlicues" on the cornish and porticos. They use gas for lights and almost everything else, but have not got as good a supply as Big Sandy.

Everybody rides in a buggy when he goes any place and it is very seldom that you see anybody horse back.

There are no stone quarries here. All the stones they have are around buildings that look like granite. There are plenty of school houses and meeting houses, but there are no male organizations yet. I think there will be before long. They need instruction with regard to the population of China. U. E. S.

SPRINGS LIKE WILDFIRE. When things are "the best" they become "the best" selling. Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, Ohio, writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50c, sold by A. M. Hughes, druggist.

Adolph Blumer, Grand Monnd, Ia., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in my family and think it is the best cough cure on the market. I would not be without it in my home, as there is nothing so good for coughs and colds. A. M. Hughes.

In memory of Robert Chambers, who fell asleep Oct. 10th, 1901. Folded are the busy hands. In quiet long and deep; Closed are the kindly eyes In sweet and solemn sleep. Mute are the lips and cold—Of utterance mild and wise; Hushed is the ear to earth In heaven's glad surprise. Stilled is the loving heart Once full of service sweet; Gone a loved one from earth To walk the Golden Street. Ended, a careful life, Ended all grief and pain; Ours the sorrowful loss, His the eternal gain. F. C.

Geo. A. Points, Upper Sandusky, O., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for hoarseness and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately and relieved the soreness. Take none but Foley's. A. M. Hughes.

TO CURE A COLD. Stop coughing, as it irritates the lungs and gives them no chance to heal. Foley's Honey and Tar cures without causing a strain in throwing off the phlegm like common cough expectorants. A. M. Hughes.

KAVANAUGH. Farmers are done cutting corn and sowing wheat. Isaac Fannin has returned from Buffalo, N. Y. Strother Fannin, who has been very low with fever, has recovered. Mrs. Berry, of Culbertson, is very ill.

W. M. Cowell is learning to play the harp. Several of the young folks attended the entertainment at Mud Lick Monday night. J. G. Justice will preach at Mt. Zion Saturday and Sunday. Born, to Dock Davis and wife a Free Will Baptists. The Free Will conference of Lawrence and Johnson counties convened at the church at the forks of Georges creek 4th Saturday in Oct. 1901. After conference was called to order by the clerk, Elder H. B. Conley was chosen Moderator, and Kelley Fralcy Ass. Mod. The Mod. read 1 chap. James, and led in prayer. Visiting brethren of other denominations were invited to a seat with us as advisory members. After the letters from the various churches were called for the clerk received letters from Georges creek, Walnut Grove, Toms creek, Little Mud Lick and Little Blaine. Verbal reports were given from Irish creek, Lick Fork, Peach Orchard.

A letter of correspondence from the regular Baptist borne by Elder S. Johnson. After motion made and sustained to give Bro. Quisenberry ordination papers, Bro. J. M. Hicks, L. M. Smith and Kelley Fralcy as a council to examine him. Reported favorable. Letters from Wayne county Q by Elders Murphy and Franco received. Elder J. M. Hicks was appointed to attend the Wayne Q. M. to be held at Ky. Home first Saturday in November. A committee was appointed to decide where the next Q. M. should be held. They decided to give it to the Toms creek church. The clerk was ordered to write a letter of warning to the delinquent ministers. Motion to adjourn from business until next session. This meeting we had more letters, a larger delegation, more ministers present, a larger congregation, a greater out pouring of the Holy Ghost than we have had for a great while. Thank God! Naaman Borders, Clerk.

Today took Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively prevents pneumonia, or other serious results from colds. It may be too late tomorrow. A. M. Hughes.

BLAINE. Election is over and 3 candidates lost. Miss Martha Elam went to Busseyville recently. Every thing is quiet here. Harry Gambill has quit hunting on account of a box of shells failing to arrive. Road Tramp.

POTOMAC. Rev. A. R. Miller preached at Greasy Sunday. We are glad to note that Miss Rachel Arthur, who has been ill so long, is improving. Mrs. T. J. Bluebaum and Miss Mabel Butler were the guests of friends here Sunday. Mike Dinan and George Rouse passed up our creek today. Prof. R. H. White closed the singing school at Greasy Saturday night. Born, to George Bowling and wife, a 14-pound boy. Mrs. J. P. and Miss Cora Rankin, of Culbertson, were guests of Miss Fannie Bluebaum Saturday. Wm. Clarkson is doing some work on the el-dern at Golden Gate this week. Julius Rollins went to Cincinnati last week. Dr. Everett Handley passed here Monday. Wm. Bowling's eyes are still in a serious condition. He is in Cincinnati yet. We are sorry to hear of uncle Billy Rollins going to leave us. The social given by Misses Hattie and Mayne Fields Saturday night was a pleasant affair and enjoyed by all. Lafa Queen is repairing his dwelling. Harvey Peters is erecting a new barn. Misses Hattie and Marie Fields visited school at Golden Gate Tuesday. Buffalo Hill.

FOR HOARSENESS. Dan Ingram, of Union, Ind., says he had not spoken a word above a whisper for month, and one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice. He sure and got Foley's. A. M. Hughes.

WHITE HOUSE. Con Check, Prop. Harris Hotel, while riding along with Robert Stanley, Sheriff, on Beaver creek, was challenged for a fair fist fight by a Mr. Crisp. Mr. Check did not want to fight but Crisp delivered his revolver to the Sheriff, got off his horse by a fair fight. Check was getting the best of Crisp when Crisp's brother and father began hitting him with rocks, and Mr. Stanley was holding another fellow to keep him from shooting Check. When the fight was over Check was lying on the ground almost dead. The enemy thought he was dead. He was taken to his father-in-law's, where he had his wounds dressed. He has been brought home and is slowly improving. Enoch Cox, of Flat Gap, brother-in-law of Mrs. B. H. Harris, has moved here. Coon Waits, traveling salesman for Newberry, Crum & Preston, called on our merchants one day

HOUSEWORK. Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition. WINE OF CARDUI is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cures Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendene, Ky., Feb. 10, 1902. I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help and I washed last week and was not too tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lie down five or six times every day, but now I don't think of going down through the day. Mrs. Christine Jones. $1.00 AT DRUGGISTS. For advice and literature, address, giving name, to The Ladies' Friend, The Wine of Cardui, Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or become diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar bottles. Write for a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

last week. Hon. John W. Langley and two brothers, Theo. and Ernest, passed here enroute to Prestonsburg, to be at the election. Timothy Winkley.

HOW'S THIS? We offer one Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Prop., P. O. Box 589, St. Louis, Mo. We have cured 100 cases of Catarrh of the bladder, and believe himself cured by the use of our medicine, and a small fee to carry out any obligations made by our medicine. WEST & BIRKAY, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Wadling, Kinnam & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

MADGE. Misses Maude, Madge and Virginia Burchett visited our school Friday. Miss Maude has just returned from East Liverpool, Ohio, and we are glad to have her with us again. Uncle Wesley Carter was buried at this place, Saturday. Belle Pigg was here Friday. Ulisses Prince passed through here recently. Virgil Prose, of Myrtle, visited home folks this week. Bert Roberts attended the picnic at Busseyville Saturday night. John Damron went to Louisa Thursday. A party of young folks were out hunting last week. Will Haws, who has been sick for so long is not much better. T. T. Thompson passed through here recently. Misses Samantha and Hanna Nelson visited their sister, Mrs. S. F. Roberts Sunday. John McPerry, of Catlettsburg, visited his sister Mrs. Matilda Meek last week. Miss Rhoda Prose of Irad called on Nora and Bertha Roberts Friday. J. B. Carter passed through here last week. Mat Berry, of Mattie, attended the burial of Wesley Carter. G. G. Roberts called on Mont Nelson Sunday. Miss Maude Clarkson was at Busseyville Saturday. Mrs. Georgia Roberts visited homefolks here recently. Mrs. Katharine McCown and children visited her father-in-law, Thomas McCown, who is on the sick list. Zeal Hayes of Little Blaine was at G. G. Roberts' Monday. Virgil Prose visited our school this week. Let us hear from Strawberry and Uncle Ben. Queechy.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY. From Coopersville, Mich., comes the word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid which when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mrs. H. H. Humberger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and have never found it equal for coughs and colds." It is an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles at 50c and $1 at A. M. Hughes. Trial bottles free.

MADGE. The long looked for rain has come and farmers are pleased as it will be quite a help to wheat. Will Haws, who has had fever for some time, we are sorry to say is no better. Miss Maude Burchett paid our school a visit Monday. Quite a number of young folks from this place attended the picnic at Busseyville Saturday and report a nice time. Misses Effie O'Neil and Laura Pigg, of Busseyville, were here Sunday. The remains of Uncle Wesley Carter, of Dry Ridge, who died a few days ago were brought here and laid to rest in the old family grave yard at Uncle Strother Roberts'. George Haws and Asberry Hutchinson make frequent visits to Deep Hole.

Mr. Check did not want to fight but Crisp delivered his revolver to the Sheriff, got off his horse by a fair fight. Check was getting the best of Crisp when Crisp's brother and father began hitting him with rocks, and Mr. Stanley was holding another fellow to keep him from shooting Check. When the fight was over Check was lying on the ground almost dead. The enemy thought he was dead. He was taken to his father-in-law's, where he had his wounds dressed. He has been brought home and is slowly improving. Enoch Cox, of Flat Gap, brother-in-law of Mrs. B. H. Harris, has moved here. Coon Waits, traveling salesman for Newberry, Crum & Preston, called on our merchants one day

HOUSEWORK. Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition. WINE OF CARDUI is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cures Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendene, Ky., Feb. 10, 1902. I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help and I washed last week and was not too tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lie down five or six times every day, but now I don't think of going down through the day. Mrs. Christine Jones. $1.00 AT DRUGGISTS. For advice and literature, address, giving name, to The Ladies' Friend, The Wine of Cardui, Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. A. R. Miller preached at Greasy Sunday. We are glad to note that Miss Rachel Arthur, who has been ill so long, is improving. Mrs. T. J. Bluebaum and Miss Mabel Butler were the guests of friends here Sunday. Mike Dinan and George Rouse passed up our creek today. Prof. R. H. White closed the singing school at Greasy Saturday night. Born, to George Bowling and wife, a 14-pound boy. Mrs. J. P. and Miss Cora Rankin, of Culbertson, were guests of Miss Fannie Bluebaum Saturday. Wm. Clarkson is doing some work on the el-dern at Golden Gate this week. Julius Rollins went to Cincinnati last week. Dr. Everett Handley passed here Monday. Wm. Bowling's eyes are still in a serious condition. He is in Cincinnati yet. We are sorry to hear of uncle Billy Rollins going to leave us. The social given by Misses Hattie and Mayne Fields Saturday night was a pleasant affair and enjoyed by all. Lafa Queen is repairing his dwelling. Harvey Peters is erecting a new barn. Misses Hattie and Marie Fields visited school at Golden Gate Tuesday. Buffalo Hill.

FOR HOARSENESS. Dan Ingram, of Union, Ind., says he had not spoken a word above a whisper for month, and one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice. He sure and got Foley's. A. M. Hughes.

WHITE HOUSE. Con Check, Prop. Harris Hotel, while riding along with Robert Stanley, Sheriff, on Beaver creek, was challenged for a fair fist fight by a Mr. Crisp. Mr. Check did not want to fight but Crisp delivered his revolver to the Sheriff, got off his horse by a fair fight. ## Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or become diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar bottles. Write for a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY. From Coopersville, Mich., comes the word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid which when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mrs. H. H. Humberger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and have never found it equal for coughs and colds." It is an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles at 50c and $1 at A. M. Hughes. Trial bottles free.

MADGE. The long looked for rain has come and farmers are pleased as it will be quite a help to wheat. Will Haws, who has had fever for some time, we are sorry to say is no better. Miss Maude Burchett paid our school a visit Monday. Quite a number of young folks from this place attended the picnic at Busseyville Saturday and report a nice time. Misses Effie O'Neil and Laura Pigg, of Busseyville, were here Sunday. The remains of Uncle Wesley Carter, of Dry Ridge, who died a few days ago were brought here and laid to rest in the old family grave yard at Uncle Strother Roberts'. George Haws and Asberry Hutchinson make frequent visits to Deep Hole.
